Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

- Species 1: Figures 1-3 [current driving device with reference sources on and off-chip; spec. p. 8, 19, 22, 26, 28]
- Species 2: Figures 4-6 [current driving device with additional current distribution

 MISFETs and current input MISFETs; spec. p. 9, 19, 30, 32, 35]
- Species 3: Figure 7, 8A, 8B [current driving device with plurality of current distribution MISFETS with one or more MISFETs cascoded to serve as current source; spec. p. 10, 19, 20, 36]
- Species 4: Figure 9, 10A, 10B, 10C, 11A, 11B, 11C [current driving device in which the current distribution MISFETs are arbitrarily shuffled from an output terminal of each of the supply sections; spec. p. 20, 40, 41, 43]
- Species 5: Figure 13, 14 [current driving device in with each current supply sections include MISFETs provided in different MISFET regions; spec. p. 20, 45, 46]
- Species 6: Figure 15 [current driving device in which resistances are provided on a bias line and between gate electrodes of adjacent ones of current distribution MISFETs in a second current driving device; spec. p. 20, 47]
- Species 7: Figure 16-18 [current driving device with a cascode MISFET having the same conductive type as that of the current distribution MISFETs; spec. p. 20, 49, 50, 52]

Species 8: Figure 19 [current driving device in which semiconductor chips are arranged so that the direction in which a rèference current flows in changed in every arbitrary interval of time; spec. p. 21, 52, 53, 56]

The species are independent or distinct because they claim mutually exclusive characteristics as noted in the brackets above.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim appears generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Application/Control Number: 10/797,245

Art Unit: 2838

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Richard V. Muralidar whose telephone number is 571-272-8933. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:00-5:30.
